OBITUARY

MRS. H. H. McDANNOLD.

Mrs. Alice McDannold died at her home in Wellsville, Mo., Sept. 12, 1909, of cancer.

Mrs. McDannold was the only daughter of Elder S. A. Elkins of Montgomery City, and was born in Clark county, Ky., March 2, 1872, being 37 years, 8 months and 10 days old at the time of her death.

She was married to H. H. McDannold in February, 1892. To this union four children were born, three boys and one girl, who, with the husband and her father and one brother, Dr. Elkins, and step-mother and sister, with a number of other relatives and friends, mourn her death. But we feel that our loss is her eternal gain.

The funeral services were conducted Tuesday by Elder Conlee of Waverly, Ill., after which the remains were laid to rest in the cemetery at Wellsville, Mo., there to await the Resurrection morn.

May peace be to her dust. X.

ALEXANDER MUDD.

Was born in Charles county, Md., Oct. 11, 1820. He was the son of Theodore and Dorothy Mudd, and was a member of the celebrated family of that name so well known in the early history of our country.

A grant of land was made by the king of England to his ancestors, and his father was the last of his line to hold possession of this estate. Hence, Alex. Mudd was born on the homestead.

He emigrated to Missouri in the year 1841 and settled in the vicinity of Millwood, Lincoln county. In the year 1846 he was united in marriage to Miss Comfort Ann Worthington.

To this union eight children were born, four of whom died in infancy. His first-born, a daughter, died in Texas Sept. 10, 1875. The children surviving their father are: Mrs. Susan T. Clare, wife of Thomas Clare; Lewis Dorsey and Foster Marcellus Mudd.

His first wife died June 10, 1864, and he was afterwards married to Mary Ann Brown, who departed life Jan. 15, 1902.

He was born and reared in the Roman Catholic faith. In 1857 he renounced his allegiance to this faith and united with the Christian church at Louisville, Mo. He was an earnest, sincere seeker after truth and was a faithful disciple of our Lord Jesus Christ.

He was always true to his convictions, whether religious, political or social. His life was an open book, to be seen and read of all men. In him was no guile or deceit. He was squarely on one side or the other of all questions coming before him for settlement.

No one could misunderstand his position on any of the great issues of life.

He lived on his farm near Millwood until 1884, when he moved to Montgomery county, near Bellflower, and was a citizen of this county until his death, which occurred at the home of his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Clare, at Canton, Mo.

A short funeral service was conducted at their residence by Eld. G. W. Buckner, after which the remains were brought to Montgomery for interment. The funeral was preached by Eld. W. A. Melan Wednesday morning, Sept. 15, at the Christian church. In the presence of a large audience of his brethren, kindred and friends.

After the storm of life and its battles are ended, his spirit has gone to God who gave it and his body rests in our city cemetery, waiting the Judgment Day. X.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harrison of this city died early Monday morning, Sept. 13, 1909. After short services at the house the remains were interred in the city cemetery at 4 o'clock p. m. of same date.

Follow the example of all your friends. Read the Tribune.

The Methodist Church

There will be preaching at the Methodist church next Sunday at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. by the new pastor, Rev. J. M. Bone. Bro. Bone is a fine preacher and a genial, pleasant gentleman. He is in the prime of life and is thoroughly well equipped for his life work. We bespeak for him the genuine success that he so well deserves. He comes to Montgomery delighted with his pastorate here, and we feel sure the good people of the church and the community in general will be pleased with him as a preacher and as a man. Come out and hear him next Sunday.

H. D. Thompson, Retiring Pastor.

HADLEY'S RECORD ON THE LIQUOR QUESTION.

In furtherance of proper and enlightened public opinion which demands that further restrictions be placed upon the political activities of the liquor interests and the sale of intoxicating liquors, I recommended, and the House passed, a county unit local option law by which the people of the several counties could more effectively prevent the sale of intoxicating liquors therein, and a bill permitting the people of the residence districts of the large cities to exclude the saloons therefrom. Each of these bills was passed by the House and defeated in the Senate. In addition to these bills, I recommended a law requiring every club engaged in the sale of intoxicating liquors to take out a license in order that the sale of liquors in this manner might be properly regulated and the notorious lid clubs suppressed. This bill failed of passage in the House by three votes. A similar bill in the Senate was never permitted to come to a vote.—Governor Hadley.

A TRUE INDICTMENT.

As a result of the issues of the last campaign there came before the legislature questions affecting the relations of the people to the liquor interests and the public service corporations of the state. And there also came before the legislature the representatives of these special interests to see that no laws were passed that would injuriously affect their business. And the membership of the lobby included a larger number of distinguished and influential Democratic politicians than did the legislature itself.—Governor Hadley.

ST. LOUIS MARKET.

National Stock Yards, Ill., Sept. 14, 1909.—Cattle receipts 8000. Market fully steady with yesterday. One bunch of choice yearlings reached $8.25, and although that looks high for yearlings, it is not the limit of expectations under present demands. The range in values continues very wide, choice grades selling 15 to 25c higher than a week ago. Medium killers, except heifers, steady, and the medium heifers, of which supplies have been liberal, 10 to 15c lower. Outlook strong on the good kinds.

Hog receipts 7500. The market opened steady, and all early sales to butchers and shippers were on that basis. Tops reaching $3.61-2, which was paid for one small bunch of choice hogs. Late in the day after shippers had filled up packers bought their hogs 10 to 15c lower, and at the close a good many hogs remained unsold. Aside from a few choice hogs the quality was very ordinary; bulk $8.10 to $8.45. We sold some choice 124 lb. pigs at $3; outlook about steady, and we recommend shipping all hogs that will do to come.

Sheep receipts 4,000. Market steady. Top lambs $7.50. They were not as good as the best yesterday. Top sheep $4.85. It looks like light supplies and a strong market during the remainder of this week.

Letter From Mr. W. C. Crandall.

Glenwood, Ia., Sept. 14, Ed. Tribune:

Some time has passed since my territory was changed to the south on the potato deal in May. I spent nearly a month in the south, at points in Tennessee, Louisiana and Mississippi, then returned to St. Louis and came direct to my home in Boulder, Colo., which was the first week in June. There I remained until July 25, when I struck out to look for apples.

Am now located at this place, where the apple buyers are as thick as Japs around the Sugar Beet country. However, I have secured what will make 7,000 barrels, and have already shipped 1500 barrels. The quality here is good, clear and free from worms.

Glenwood, the county seat of Mills county, is a flourishing city and the corn and apples will add many thousands to her wealth.

It is estimated there will be 300 cars of apples shipped this season from this station alone, and as many more from various other points in the county.

Hope when apple season is over to make my old territory again, and see my many friends.

Whoever buys apples from my old firm of Jasper & Sellmeyer will get good stuff of my pack.

Yours, W. C. Crandall.
